Comment: Ran above market expectation on debut at Hawkesbury, finishing third behind Not On My Watch over 5 1/2f after jumping at long odds and being bumped leaving the barriers. The rise to 7f is a new test and he carries 130lbs again, but that first run showed enough professionalism to suggest he can improve second-up. Extra trip is the query, but second-up improvement keeps him in the mix.

Comment: Made a strong debut at Gosford when third behind Crash Bang Wallop over 6f, beaten a length and a half after being bumped early and coming from well back as the well-supported favourite. That soft-track placing gives him the best exposed profile, and he had Usain Boss covered there. Needs to handle 7f, but the profile is strong.

Comment: Continues to race honestly, finishing third at Tuncurry over 6f when beaten a length and a half after racing wide throughout and being bumped on the home turn. He had earlier run fourth behind Crash Bang Wallop at Gosford on soft ground, again only beaten a length and a half, though Stratford finished ahead of him there. Must reverse the Stratford form, but he is ready to win.

Comment: Finished eighth on debut at Goulburn over 6f, beaten just under four lengths behind Centimetre after settling rearward and racing wide throughout. That gives him some excuse, and his earlier Hawkesbury trial second suggests he had shown more before race day.

Comment: Resumed with a plain ninth at Muswellbrook over 6 1/2f, beaten four and a half lengths after settling rearward with no clear excuse. His debut third came in a 2yo Open at Newcastle on heavy ground, so there is a past run with more substance, but he did not build on it first-up. Debut 2yo Open placing gives some hope, but improvement is required.

Comment: Returns from a lengthy spell after finishing third in mid-week company at Canterbury over 7 3/4f on soft ground, beaten just over two lengths behind Sharbino. He had been second at Gosford six days earlier, beaten just over half a length at long odds after racing keenly early. Mid-week Canterbury placing reads well, though 7f fresh is the test.

Comment: Eases from provincial company after finishing seventh at Hawkesbury, beaten eight lengths by Lady Capitalist, and she did have genuine interference when tightened at the start and eased late. Her Newcastle fifth over 4 1/2f before that was only fair, so the class relief and third-up timing need to bring improvement. Still needs to find more than she showed at Newcastle.

Comment: Has placed at both runs this campaign, most recently third at Muswellbrook over 6 1/2f when beaten two and a half lengths after tracking the speed and keeping on. She was also narrowly beaten at Bathurst on heavy ground two back, so the consistency is there. Rising to 7f in this race demands another step.

Comment: Returns from a lengthy spell after a Class 3 fourth at Wagga, where he began slowly, covered ground and was beaten a length and a half by Wear The Crown. His Wyong third to Stratify beforehand also had merit after an awkward start and early interference. A trial win at Illawarra Grange helps the fresh case, and the 4lbs claim offsets some of the weight. Needs clear running from a quiet pattern, but the fresh profile is strong.

Comment: Went close at Goulburn last start in Class 2 grade, finishing second to Nymphadora over this trip after being near the top of betting and just run down late. The Wyong fourth prior was also sound without quite finishing off. He is fourth-up, proven at 5 1/2f and brings a strong stable and jockey profile, with Alysha Collett back aboard. Beaten as a key market hope, but he gets the right chance to atone.

Comment: Improved sharply at Goulburn last start, finishing fourth over 6 1/2f and beaten just over a length after giving a sight at long odds. That was a better effort than his Randwick 11th in 3yo+ Class 3 company six days earlier. Winless this season, but his Goulburn profile keeps him in the place mix.

Comment: Lifted at Queanbeyan in Benchmark 74 grade, finishing third on soft ground and beaten just over a length after beginning slowly and being held up around the home turn. The Albury run prior was plain on heavy going, beaten nine and a half lengths at big odds. Strong Goulburn record helps, but the 5 1/2f record is the query.

Comment: Missed narrowly in a provincial Class 1 at Wyong last start, finishing second to Cosmic Order and beaten a head after being well found in betting. That followed a soft-ground Maiden win at Hawkesbury, where she beat Union by just under two lengths despite shifting out near the 1/2f. Progressive, but this asks more of her.

Comment: Returns from a five-week freshening after a Class 2 fourth at Canberra Acton, where he was held up on the home turn before finishing just over three lengths from Super Infinity. His previous Class 2 second to Zou Royal over 6f was more convincing, with a slow start the main blemish. Turf form is the sticking point.

Comment: Ran well in Benchmark 74 grade at Queanbeyan last start, finishing second to Dawn On Me and beaten half a length at generous odds. The run prior at Goulburn was only fifth in Class 3 company, beaten three and a half lengths after having every chance to go on with it. Needs to show more at 5 1/2f to turn that into a win.

Comment: Resumed with a Class 1 fourth at Muswellbrook, beaten just under four lengths after travelling into it but failing to finish off. Her previous Kembla Grange Class 1 run was weaker, finishing last and beaten just under nine lengths when unwanted in the market. Needs a lift late.

Comment: Backs up after six days following a Canberra second in 4yo+ Benchmark 50 grade, beaten half a length as favourite after being held up near straightening. She had won the same grade there two weeks earlier, scoring by a long neck from Time And Rhythm on soft ground. In form, but this is a tougher assignment.

Comment: Arrives off a provincial Class 1 win at Wyong, where he travelled sweetly midfield and beat Ribble Lace by a long neck over 1m. The second to Savoonga at Wyong prior reads sound enough after being bumped early on soft ground, and his overall record is reliable. The 134lbs and back to 7 1/2f are the queries, but he holds claims.

Comment: Eases back from a provincial Benchmark 64 after finishing third to Concrete Storm at Hawkesbury, beaten just under four lengths after working forward and keeping on. She had been second last as favourite in an FM Benchmark 64 at Beaumont (Newcastle), so the latest run was a correction rather than a spike. Needs to build again, but she is fit and has a genuine place profile.

Comment: Was safely beaten in a provincial Benchmark 64 at Kembla Grange last start, finishing last and beaten over 12 lengths after being in a striking position at the turn. The better reference is her Class 1 win at Goulburn two back, when held up before arriving in time to beat Overshadow. Needs a quick turnaround to be more than a rough hope.

Comment: Missed by only a head in a Class 1 over 6 1/2f at Goulburn last start, leading and only being nailed late by Wolf Island. Her Nowra fifth first-up had merit after racing wide throughout on soft ground, and she now reaches peak fitness third-up. Third-up now, with 7 1/2f the only real query.

Comment: Was beaten a neck as favourite in a Goulburn Class 1 over 6 1/2f last start, jumping awkwardly and settling rearward before failing to quicken as sharply as expected. His prior maiden win here on soft ground was much stronger, beating Hampton Style by just over four lengths as an odds-on favourite. New trip is the test, but the upside is there.

Comment: Went within a nose in a Benchmark 58 at Goulburn last start at generous odds, travelling well and only being caught on the post. She had earlier run third to Smichov in a Wyong Class 1, beaten two and a half lengths after beginning awkwardly. Light weight keeps her in the each-way conversation.

Comment: Worked home from the back for third at Goulburn last start over 5 1/2f, beaten two and a half lengths behind Nymphadora despite being unwanted in the market. His prior Corowa fifth on soft ground was fair without being sharp, with early keenness noted. Top weight tempers the win case, but he is a sound place hope.

Comment: Returns from a lengthy spell after finishing fourth in a Benchmark 64 over 7 1/2f at Kembla Grange, beaten a length and a half by Hush Hush in provincial company. That reads strongly enough for this Class 2, and he has had 2 trials since last raced. Back to 6 1/2f is the query, but the class angle is strong.

Comment: Made a winning debut at Kembla Grange in an FM Maiden, beating Memorise by a neck after starting at long odds. She was placed under pressure late and laid out in the straight, so there is still polish to come, but the race-day result was the right one. Class 2 is a new test, but the upside is obvious.

Comment: Arrives in winning form after taking a Class 1 at Goulburn by a head from Costalivin, having been well found in betting and strong late when it mattered. The run prior was a long-neck second in a 4yo+ Benchmark 50 at Canberra Acton, so his form has been holding together. Needs to hold the level in Class 2, but his recent profile is strong.

Comment: Had market confidence as favourite in a Benchmark 55 at Canberra last start but finished ninth, beaten just over three lengths, after interference near the 1f. Two back she was tenth in a Benchmark 58 at Nowra, again close enough on margin without producing a winning finish. Weight relief helps, but she needs a sharper finish.

Comment: Comes off a Class 1 win at Gundagai on heavy ground, beating Iroquai by a neck after being bumped early and still picking up well. That is a positive, but she now rises from 5 f to 6 1/2f and her two previous Goulburn runs produced no placings.

Comment: Eased from provincial FM Benchmark 64 company after finishing seventh at Gosford, beaten eight lengths behind Regal Problem when wide without cover throughout. That gives some excuse, but she was unwanted in the market and her wet-track record is a clear concern for a soft 5. Needs clear improvement.

Comment: Finished fifth at Goulburn last start over 5 1/2f, beaten three and a half lengths by Nymphadora, and again started unwanted in the market. His Canberra Acton fifth before that came at big odds after settling well back and having work to do. Needs to turn effort into a result.

Comment: Drops back from 7 1/4f after finishing sixth in a Class 1 at Moruya, beaten just over four lengths, with a bump at the start and a wide run throughout offering some mitigation. The issue is that his prior Kembla Grange effort was a last placing, beaten nine and a half lengths by Orange Tsunami. Needs a marked turnaround.

Comment: Returns from a lengthy spell after finishing seventh at Bairnsdale, where he was near the top of betting, raced keenly early, led to the turn and was overrun to be beaten five and a half lengths by Brutal World. He had earlier run third at Swan Hill, beaten four and a half lengths, and has placed once from two attempts at this distance. Needs to settle better, but barrier one gives him a strong platform.

Comment: Led on debut at Goulburn and boxed on for third, though The Local had him beaten six and a half lengths and he was among the outsiders in betting. The effort showed early pace, but he still finished behind Jenni Moo Moo in the same race and now has to overcome barrier 10. Needs sharper improvement second-up.

Comment: Makes his debut for Matthew Dale with Keagan Latham booked, a combination that carries respect at Goulburn. His public evidence is limited to a 3 3/4f trial here in May when fourth and beaten 6.71 lengths, so there is not much recent race or trial form to lean on. Trial form is old, but this looks a suitable starting point.

Comment: Finished sixth at Goulburn first-up, beaten just over nine lengths by The Local after settling rearward and only keeping on at long odds. His debut third in a 2yo Open at Wagga came in a small field when he raced wide throughout, but he was still beaten just over six lengths by Jarbardar. Needs to find more than he has shown so far.

Comment: Returns from a five-month break after a plain debut at Goulburn, where she finished last, beaten over 12 lengths by Roonami, and was unwanted in the market. She tracked the speed and was close enough at the turn, so there was no clear excuse for the fade. No clear excuse there, so improvement is essential.

Comment: Has the race fitness and recent form edge, having run second at Goulburn last start when beaten just under five lengths by The Local after settling well back. She had earlier been bumped at the start before finishing second at Moruya on soft ground, beaten just under a length by Time For Snow. Still a 13-start maiden, but she is fit and holding her form.

Comment: Returns from a six-month break with two trials behind her, including a latest third at Goulburn, so she should be better prepared than on debut. That Queanbeyan run was sixth, beaten just under nine lengths by Slay Queen after beginning slowly and having work to do from the rear. Slow start hurt on debut; cleaner manners put her in the placings.

Comment: Resumed with a second-last finish at Goulburn, beaten over 12 lengths at long odds, and the wide run after jumping awkwardly does not fully offset the margin. His previous start here on soft ground was even plainer, finishing last and beaten over 16 lengths by Brutal Belle. Weight relief helps only if he finds a clear lift.

Comment: Was unwanted in the market on debut at Canberra over 5f and finished second last, beaten eight and a half lengths by Defiance on soft ground. She was close enough at the turn but did not quicken, leaving no obvious excuse. Up in trip now and needs a much sharper response.

Comment: Placed first-up at Wyong when second to Lucand Magic, beaten four and a half lengths after settling rearward and running past tired horses late. That followed a much sharper Kembla Grange third on heavy ground when beaten a long neck despite being tightened on jumping. Gets back in running, so needs the race to suit.

Comment: Debuted with a fourth at Hawkesbury, beaten a length and a half by Not On My Watch after beginning well and racing handy, but the stewards noted he covered ground throughout. He was near the top of betting there and now has blinkers going on second-up. Needs to finish it off, but the profile is strong.

Comment: Returns from a lengthy spell after a Mudgee seventh on heavy ground over 7f, beaten six and a half lengths when near the top of betting. The run prior was better, closing into third at Scone on soft ground after beginning slowly. Earlier Scone third reads okay, but the lay-off and trip are queries.

Comment: Eased back from provincial company after a better-than-it-looks Hawkesbury fifth to Flight Of Power, beaten just over two lengths after jumping awkwardly, striking an early block and closing off from well back. The Warwick Farm run prior was sound enough on soft ground when near the top of an open market. Eased from provincial grade and gets his chance.

Comment: Makes his debut for the Annabel and Rob Archibald stable with four trials behind him, the latest at Warwick Farm two weeks ago. The recent trial margins have not been dominant, but there is enough groundwork for him to be ready for a maiden of this nature. Race-day manners are unknown, but he can run into the minor money.

Comment: Starts his career with three trials on the CV, including a Warwick Farm third in the latest, which gives him a sound enough platform for debut. The pedigree adds interest, being a half to The Black Cloud, a Listed winner over 5f, and this looks a suitable starting point. Strong enough profile to go close.

Comment: Returns from a four-month break after finishing second last at Canterbury on heavy ground, beaten just under six lengths by Pin Up Sheila after being bumped and later unbalanced. Her debut in a 2yo Open at Randwick had some merit, with a held-up passage before she was eased late. Mixed trials, but her Randwick debut had excuses and she can place.

Comment: Debuts after three Warwick Farm trials, the latest a close second over 4f, which is the strongest public pointer in her preparation. She also made 150000 at the 2025 Australian Easter Yearling Sale, so there is some profile behind her, though sale ring and trials only take the assessment so far. Place claims if she handles race day.

Comment: Finished last at Goulburn last start, beaten nine and a half lengths by Centimetre after settling rearward and offering little in the straight. Her Hawkesbury debut was also plain, with a seventh at big odds despite a minor steadied moment. The 4lbs claim helps, but she needs a sharp lift.

Comment: Returns from a five-week freshening after a heavy Wyong defeat, finishing last and beaten over 15 lengths when unwanted in the market, with no clear excuse offered. The Sapphire Coast run prior was also poor, beaten over 12 lengths. Needs a big turnaround.

Comment: Went close over 6 1/2f at Goulburn last start, finishing third behind Wolf Island and beaten a neck after racing keenly early before finishing strongly. He had also run third here over 7f, beaten two lengths behind Skirmish, so the recent form is solid. Back to 5 1/2f is the query, but his wet-track record keeps him in play.

Comment: Made a highly effective debut at Goulburn, winning a Maiden by just under five lengths as a dominant odds-on favourite after settling behind the leaders. The stewards noted he was slow to begin, which adds merit to how decisively he put Jenni Moo Moo away. This is a sterner Class 1 test, but the debut margin makes him a major chance.

Comment: Returns from a five-month break after finishing ninth in a provincial 3yo+ Class 2 at Hawkesbury, beaten just over four lengths after being bumped at the start. Her earlier Goulburn second over 1m, beaten a neck as odds-on favourite, reads better and she has placed three times from three runs here. The sharp trip reduction is the concern.

Comment: Kept coming when third at Gundagai on heavy ground, beaten a long neck, and that run had extra merit after she raced wide throughout as favourite. The Albury third before that was also honest, beaten just over a length behind Lord Of Valor on heavy ground. Handles wet ground, but needs a sharper winning edge.

Comment: Was safely held at Goulburn last start when seventh behind Wolf Island, beaten just over four lengths after settling back and making no impression. Her Moruya fifth before that had more late effort after a slow start, but she was still beaten just over six lengths. Needs improvement.

Comment: Returns from a five-month break after closing hard for second at Queanbeyan, beaten a length and a half by Tea Or Coffee as a well-supported favourite. His previous Goulburn fourth came in a Benchmark 58 and included late tightening, so there is depth to the form. Trip is the query, not the class.

Comment: Finished fifth at Goulburn last start behind Wolf Island, beaten three and a half lengths after being safely held, and he was also behind Glenn's Legacy in that race. The Moruya run prior was a Class 2 seventh on heavy ground, where he jumped awkwardly and was held up but still failed to quicken. Needs to lift off the Goulburn fifth.

Comment: Produced a strong debut win at Queanbeyan in Maiden grade, scoring by just under a length over Wild Romeo after beginning slowly and coming from a long way back. The market let her go at generous odds, so she did more than expected first time out. Class 1 from barrier 10 is harder, so she is an each-way hope.

Comment: Returns from a five-month break with two trials behind her, including a latest third at Queanbeyan that should bring her on. She led and was run down late when fifth at Goulburn before the spell, beaten just under three lengths by Olington Lane, after winning a Maiden at Queanbeyan by just under two lengths. Has early speed, but must improve off the last Goulburn run.

Comment: Worked home well from the back when third in a Class 2 at Goulburn last start, beaten two and a half lengths behind Nymphadora at long odds. The Corowa fifth before that, also in Class 2 grade, was sound enough without being decisive. Solid place chance if he repeats the latest effort.
